MLA ON BLAKE

Anyone wishing to participate in a tentative MLA Special Session (1980) on "Blake and the later Eighteenth Century" is invited to send a copy of the proposed contribution to Nelson Hilton, Dept. of English, Park Hall, University of Georgia, Athens, GA. 30602, no later than March 10. Topics of interest would include Blake's relation to the contemporary science, philosophy, and literature: that is, aspects of Blake as a poet of his time, a time which enacts (à la Foucault) the break with classical representation.
